

University of Pittsburgh
Bradford

As an admitted student, you're one step closer to going beyond. To finding that place where you'll learn more than you thought possible, where you'll be challenged and you'll rise to meet that challenge, where you'll meet new people and have amazing, eye-opening experiences.

You can do all of that here. You can go beyond in all aspects of your college life.

Academics

You'll be able to choose from 40 majors and more than 50 minors, concentrations and pre-professional programs. And, in each of those programs, you'll be able to go beyond textbooks and classroom lectures to get hands-on experiences, which will prepare you even more for life after college.

- Write news stories for the student newspaper, The Source.
- Assist our athletic trainers at local sporting events.
- Build your own sensors, then program them to measure carbon dioxide in soil.
- Broadcast from WDRQ, the campus radio station.
- Work on the staff or write for our literary magazine, Baily's Beads.
- Create a marketing plan for a local business.
- Help perform environment assessments with area foresters.
- Make your own music video in the TV production lab.

After graduation

With your degree from the University of Pittsburgh, you'll be on your way to getting a great job or into graduate school, just like our other alumni.

Ninety-two percent have found a job in their career field or have entered graduate or professional school within six months of graduation.

Our alumni are:

- Doctors and nurses
- Police officers, lawyers and judges
- Educators and administrators
- Company CEOs

Others are in some of the most prestigious graduate schools in the country:

- University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine
- University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Public and International Affairs
- Dartmouth College
- Temple University
- Stanford University
- Johns Hopkins University
- University of Pennsylvania

Meet Michael Moran of White Haven, PA, who earned a bachelor's degree in history/political science in 2015. Michael was grateful that his courses were demanding because that heavy workload – and help from his professors -- prepared him for law school. He's now a student at Michigan State University College of Law.

"I thank my professors for pushing me to become the person I could only have dreamed of being a few years go."

Financial Aid

Paying for a college education can be challenging, but we're here to help you. We know the impact a Pitt-Bradford education can have on your future. That's why we work so hard to make that education affordable. Our tuition and housing fees are competitive compared to other similar-sized colleges and universities, and we offer a wide variety of merit- and need-based scholarships to qualified students.

More than 94 percent of our students receive some form of financial aid through grants, loans, work study or scholarships.
